THE AUDIO READING ★ SERVICE ★

broadcasts the live reading of the Journal Gazette every day. We also broadcast recorded readings of local area newspapers, magazines, and other publications for listeners with challenges to reading normal print.

Our service is for any individual who is unable to read normal printed material because of blindness, low-vision, a literacy issue, language barrier, or physical condition, such as stroke, MS, Parkinson's or arthritis, which makes it difficult to hold a book or turn pages.

FAQ

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Nothing! All services and programs are offered free of charge. Financial support is provided by donors to the Allen County Public Library Foundation and the taxpayers of Allen County via ACPL.

DO I NEED MEDICAL CERTIFICATION?

No! Our goal is for listeners to have easy access to news and information for lifelong learning and discovery without barriers. We require no medical certification.

HOW DO I VOLUNTEER?

Contact us! If your skills and passions match our needs, we would love to have you join our audio reader team of volunteers! An interview and audition are required. To start the process, visit acpl.info/volunteer
